

Anti-Racism Statement

June 1, 2020

AMIS, as a nonprofit ministry that strives for global understanding and peace, stands with our brothers and sisters of color who have been denied justice and human rights here in the United States and around the world. We renounce systemic and institutional racism in all forms, and we commit to be on the side of the oppressed, the lonely, and the suffering. We receive our call from the words of Jesus, “For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in.” (Matthew 25:35)
